

ADM Donation to Aid in U.S. Hurricane Relief

CHICAGO, Oct. 17, 2018— Archer Daniels Midland Company (NYSE: ADM) announced today that it will donate $100,000 to aid in domestic hurricane relief. ADM donated $50,000 to Feeding America and will give another $50,000 to Peanut Proud, an organization which supports the peanut industry and communities in need by providing hunger and disaster relief.

“Our thoughts are with the millions of people impacted by the recent hurricanes,” said Clint Piper, president, Golden Peanut and Tree Nuts, a subsidiary of ADM and leading handler and processor of peanuts and tree nuts headquartered in Alpharetta, Georgia. “We commend Feeding America, Peanut Proud, and many others who are providing vital support, food and supplies to families and communities as they begin the difficult rebuilding process.”

The donation was given through ADM Cares, a social investment program that directs funds to initiatives and organizations that drive meaningful social, economic and environmental progress worldwide. The program comprises three distinct focus areas: advancing sustainable agriculture, increasing food security by supporting hunger relief; and investing in education, with a focus on projects that advance agricultural education and STEM (science, technology, engineering and math).
